FULTON COUNTY OVER

Fulton County Goes Over The Top in Third Liberty Loan Campaign—No Let Up in Effort to Carry Every District in County Beyond Quota—Honor Flag Raising Saturday Afternoon

Fulton county has honored itself and is doing credit to the chairman of the Liberty Loan campaign, Mr. W. B. Harris, and his assistants, by over-subscribing its quota of $500,000 for the third Liberty Loan and the best of it is that the campaign is still in progress and the subscription total is still mounting up.

At a meeting of the chairman and salesmen from the various districts into which the county is divided for campaign purposes, held Sunday afternoon in the court house, and well attended by representatives from every part of the county, reports indicated that the county had nearly if not quite reached its quota and on Monday the announcement was made definitely by Chairman Harris that the quota had been reached.

At the Sunday afternoon meeting Mr. W. L. Crooks, representative of the Central committee for the Fourth Federal Reserve district, in speaking of future issues of Liberty Bonds, made the statement that if this present loan was largely subscribed there would probably not be another loan until next winter, perhaps not until January of next year. He also intimated that in future loans every person would be held more responsible for subscribing the amount allotted, even if it became necessary for such person to borrow the money to do so. The war must be prosecuted to a successful finish and the government must have the money in order to carry on the war.

Every district heard from at this meeting either reported that they already had reached their quota or that they expected soon to do so. The following announcement has been issued by Chairman Harris:

Fulton County's Honor Flag will be raised on the Court House at 3 p. m., and appropriate patriotic demonstration will be made at that time. This is indeed a great honor for Fulton county, which should be shared by all of our patriotic citizens, and it is hoped that all who can, will attend and assist in these exercises. The raising of the representation of each district in the county present.

Following are the districts that up to Wednesday evening of this week had passed their quota in the order of their reaching that goal:

District	Quota
Fayette	$36,000
Metamora-Amoy	45,000
Chesterfield	17,500
Lyons-Royalton	20,000
Gorham	11,000
Wauseon	114,000
Swanton	85,000
York	40,500
Fife	72,000
Delta	21,500
Fulton	21,500
Franklin	19,500
Archbold	36,000

Wauseon reached its quota last Friday evening and Chairman L. H. Deyo announced as a new goal, $140,000. Wednesday evening of this week the sales were well on their way to this amount and more than 500 names of bond purchasers had been recorded in the name of one bond for every home in the village. Thursday night the honor flag was raised with appropriate exercises—and the subscriptions are still coming in. The campaign will close May 4.

FURLONGS FOR SOLDIERS

The Local Board is in receipt of instructions from the Provost Marshal General for their guidance in recommending furloughs for farmer boys now in service at the several camps to allow them to return home to aid in the agricultural production for the present season. The rules are quite lengthy, but a brief outline of the same will be of interest to all farmers in Fulton county.

The law was passed March 16, 1918. Commanding officers may grant furloughs within the rules when it appears that such grant will contribute to the purpose for which the law is intended. Such grant must not interfere with the progress of military training and if such is the case the furlough will be denied. Furloughs granted will be for short periods, largely for seeding and harvest time, and will not be granted to men above the grade of first sergeant; nor will they be granted to men in an organization that has been ordered, or is in transit from mobilization points, to a port of embarkation; and all furloughs granted will be recalled and the men ordered to their organizations when the latter have received orders to prepare for overseas duty.

Men granted furloughs under this order will be without pay and allowance except that enough pay will be retained to meet allotments in force on date of order, war-risk insurance and pledge on Liberty Bonds.

Applications for furloughs can be submitted by relatives on forms now in the hands of the Local Board. After this has been attended to the application then goes to the County Agent, who concurs or dissents to such findings. The application then goes to the commanding officer of the camp where such soldier is in service, and the soldier makes his application thereon, and the commanding officer then approves or disapproves the granting of the furlough.

Applications for furloughs under this order can also be made by the soldiers themselves by application to their commanding officer, and after such application is made the same is forwarded to the Local Board for the recommendations of such board and the County Agent.

Full instructions and blanks for making these applications can be secured by application to the Local Board, Wauseon, Ohio.

CIVILIAN RELIEF COMMITTEE

All men selected for military service under the Conscription Act, excepting to be called to the Colors soon, who desire to make arrangements before leaving for insurance or allotments, may secure blanks and information concerning same at the office of C. L. Canfield, secretary Fulton County Civilian Relief committee.

MRS. EPHRAIM GORSUCH

Anna Maria Cantleberry, daughter of David and Louisa Cantleberry, was born Sept. 18, 1842, near Millersville, Holmes county, Ohio, and died April 7, 1918, aged 75 years, 6 months and 19 days.

When she was two years of age her parents moved to Fulton county and built a home in what was then a wilderness, but is now a part of Wauseon.

After completing her education in the Wauseon schools she spent several years teaching in the country schools.

At the age of 13 years she became a Christian and as the years went by her faith increased and shortly before her death she said she was ready and glad to go home, where she wished her dear ones to meet her where there was no pain or suffering.

Like most pioneer women, Mrs. Gorsuch did her full share of life's work. Life to her meant service. There are many today who can remember her presence in their homes in hours of sickness or sorrow, and at all times endeavoring to lighten the burdens of others.

She was married to Ephraim Gorsuch in the early spring of 1862, and to this union were born four sons, Edwin L., Nathan N., David W., and Franklin F., who with her aged companion and two brothers, William of Toledo, and Levi of Villard, Minn., also 13 grandchildren and 9 great-grandchildren, besides many friends and neighbors, are left to mourn her departure.

The funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon, conducted by the Rev. J. A. Wharton, and the remains interred in Wauseon cemetery.

Among those from out of town who attended the funeral services were: William Cantleberry, Mrs. James Cantleberry, Mr. and Mrs. N. Gorsuch and daughter, Marie; Joseph Wisla and daughter, Ruth; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Frank of Des Moines, Iowa.

The repair of Shop avenue occupied considerable time and attention of the council.

The mayor announced the names of Ralph Menden, Homer, Paul Funk, Tim Hawley, C. E. Bie, and M. M. Harlan as special police, all these men now serving as watchmen in various business places in Wauseon.

The council confirmed the appointments.

I still have a few J. J. Deal spring wagons carried over from last year, at a splendid low price, of 50-8 c.

COUNCIL MEETING COMING AND GOING

Cedar Street Ordinance Defeated—J. C. Paxson, New City Solicitor—W. A. Hill Resigns—E. F. Hanson Appointed—Police Power Granted to Six—Spring Cleanup April 29 and 30.

The stage was all set last Monday evening for the final disposition of the ordinance to improve Cedar street by vacating lands on the west side of the street, narrowing the street its entire length to 40 feet and thereby straightening the street. The ordinance was carefully read and considered, after which opportunity was given for remarks from friends or foes, and the roll was called. One lone councilman voted "yes"; the remaining three or four of the councilmen present voted "no," and the ordinance was declared defeated.

J. C. Paxson was appointed and confirmed City Solicitor to fill the vacancy caused by the death of J. C. Files.

The resignation of W. A. Hill as councilman was presented, read and accepted. Mayor Bulger announced the appointment of E. F. Hanson to fill the vacancy this appointment was confirmed by the council. Mr. Hanson was sworn in and took his seat at the council table.

Residents of West Chestnut street informed the council that they had purchased a carload of stone for the improvement of that street and petitioned the council to provide for the hauling of the stone from the railroad to the street the matter was referred to the street commissioner with instructions to have the stone hauled as directed.

Requests concerning sewers and drains on East Oak street were referred to the Sewer committee.

Request of Mr. Barnhart that an extension of one hour on Saturday nights be given the pool and billiard rooms until next October was considered, but no action taken.

The council voted to confirm the mayor's appointment of April 29 and 30 as the annual clean-up days and the street commissioner was instructed to take charge of rubbish deposited at the curbs to be hauled away on the payment of ten cents per barrel.

The repair of Shop avenue occupied considerable time and attention of the council.

The mayor announced the names of Ralph Menden, Homer, Paul Funk, Tim Hawley, C. E. Bie, and M. M. Harlan as special police, all these men now serving as watchmen in various business places in Wauseon.

Items of Interest Concerning the Men in Khaki Whom Wauseon Is Proud to Claim as Her Own—Eastward to the Western Front—New Recruits for the Line That Follows the Stars and Stripes.

Not so much coming and going of the men in khaki during the past two weeks as in the weeks before, but enough to keep us reminded that the ranks of khaki-clad men are still training for the grim business that awaits them on the "Western Front" of battle scarred Europe.

It is no uncommon sight now—a day to see people rush to doors and windows when a uniform passes on the street in fact, we are all inclined to that performance and none of us are in the least ashamed of it. We want to get every glimpse we can of the man, Montevideo, Al. It seems to follow him and our money will follow him, and God pity the man or woman who speaks slurringly or disrespectfully of the flag which they follow or the principles for which they stand and which they will defend.

Earl Eberly from Camp Sherman was home on a short furlough last week and was wearing on his uniform the silver badge of a "sharp shooter," of which he has a perfect right to be proud. Thirty-six hours seems a short time, but we are glad to see the boys even for that length of time and we have no doubt the boys are glad to get even a glimpse of the home places and faces.

Hayes was home Saturday and Sunday and from farther away came Charley Garman on Monday of this week, having a week's furlough from his military duties at Camp Sherman, Montevideo, Al. It seems good to see Charley again on the streets of his own home town.

Harold Collins obtained a short furlough from Camp Sherman and spent Sunday with the home folks. He was joined here by his brother Frank, who is using his training as a chemical engineer for the benefit of his government, somewhere in Pennsylvania, though he does not wear the khaki. Jay Collins, the older brother of this trio, is kept busy down at Kelley Field in Texas as a member of an Aero Supply Squadron. A pretty good showing for a family of three!

Lieut. J. Darby Kenyon surprised the home folks last Thursday evening by telephoning in on them. He was en route for a port of embarkation under orders to report for prolonged field service. He left Friday noon to catch train No. 6, N. Y. C., out of Toledo, and landed in New York early Saturday morning. A letter received Monday and written Saturday evening tells of a busy day—and among other experiences he tells of meeting some wounded officers from U. S. Engineers corps who have just returned from the front, who are mighty glad to get back in the States for convalescence, and whom Darby writes that he admires as "the first real American heroes that he has met." Of course the date and place of sailing are matters that his friends may know about afterwards; all they know at present is that he will soon have one of his highest ambitions realized, and be able to use his training in the cause of Human Liberties.

Following is the list of Fulton county men who will join the colors and begin their training to join the Line that follows the Stars and Stripes, some time during the five-day period beginning April 28. There are 32 of these boys called from the county at this time and their destination is Camp Sherman:

JOHN QUINCY FILES

Prominent Attorney and Fraternity Man Honored in His Passing—Twenty-six Years a Resident of Wauseon—Tributes from Members of The Bar and Fraternal Organizations

JOHN QUINCY FILES, son of Sylvanus and Martha Jewett Files, was born on a farm near Xenia, Ohio, September 21, 1846. He passed away practically without warning, on the morning of April 10, 1918, while engaged in attending to business matters at his office.

Mr. Files received his early education in the schools of Greene county and in private study; graduated from a course in a business college in Louisville, Ky., and following his graduation was engaged as a commercial traveler until 1875, when he engaged in farming in Lucas county, where his parents had previously located. After about two years spent on the farm, he entered the law office of B. T. Geer of Swanton as a law student, and continued the study of law for three years, and at the end of that time passed the Supreme Court examination and was admitted to the Bar December 8, 1880. He opened an office at Swanton and continued the practice of law until 1891, when he was elected prosecuting attorney of Fulton county.

Twenty-six years ago next July Mr. Files brought his family to Wauseon and since that time has been a resident of our city. He served the county for six years as prosecuting attorney, has been prominent and active in political circles, served in various capacities in the administration of public affairs; conducted with his partner, J. C. Paxson, a successful law business, and has been a useful and loyal citizen. Mr. Files was especially active and took deep interest in fraternal organizations; was a member of the Masonic Blue Lodge, Chapter, and Council of Wauseon; of the Swanton Lodge, I. O. O. F., and Wauseon Lodge No. 156 Knights of Pythias. He was a past Grand and past Chief Patriarch in the Order of Odd Fellows, and past Chancellor in the Knights of Pythias; to both of these last named orders he rendered services that were invaluable, and is held in high esteem among the membership of both of these lodges.

The respect accorded Mr. Files by his associates in legal practice and by his brethren in fraternal societies is amply expressed in the tributes and letters published herewith.

Mr. Files united in marriage with Miss Alice Thompson in 1877; to this union was born one daughter; both mother and daughter died about 1879 and three years later, in 1882, he was united in marriage with Miss Mary Bowman of Lucas county; to this latter union were born two daughters, Kathryn and Florence, who, with their mother, are left to mourn the loss of the husband and father.

Knights of Pythias Pay Respects

At the regular meeting of Wauseon Lodge No. 156 Knights of Pythias, held Tuesday evening, April 16, a portion of the session was devoted to a memorial of Brother Knight J. Q. Files. His services in the Lodge and his devotion and loyalty to the Order were recited and appreciated. As an expression of their respect, the business of the Lodge was suspended and the entire Lodge stood silent for a moment.

A committee was appointed who drafted and presented to the Lodge the following resolutions which were unanimously adopted:

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT

SWANTON LODGE, I. O. O. F.
No. 528

Resolutions of Respect to the Memory of Our Worthy Brother, John Q. Files

Swanton, Ohio, April 13, 1918.

The sudden and sad news of the death of our Worthy Brother, John Q. Files, came to the members of "old" Swanton Lodge I. O. O. F.—as he had often called us—with great sorrow and regret, he being one of our honored and respected members whose advice was often called for and, as a true Old Fol- low, he cheerfully gave his best for the cause of his fellow men.

Swanton Lodge No. 528 will miss him, as he united with this lodge as its first Fraternal order, on March 1, 1879, passing through the Chair and attaining the station of Past Grand, the highest honor the lodge can bestow.

WHEREAS, The Almighty Ruler has called from us our Worthy Brother, therefore be it RESOLVED, That by his death the community has lost one of its esteemed and highly-honored members; the wife and family, a devoted husband and father; the Lodge, a worthy, honest, and congenial brother; RESOLVED, That we hereby tender the wife and family the profound sympathy of the lodge; and be it further

RESOLVED, That our charter be draped in mourning for a period of 30 days and that a copy of these resolutions be spread upon the minutes of the Lodge, and a copy inserted in the Fulton County Tribune, and a copy sent to the wife and family.

I now have my 1918 models of bugles in stock.

the final order has been entered; no exceptions have been allowed; no appeal can be prosecuted.

John Q. Files, who for almost 40 years has been engaged in the active practice of his profession at the Bar of Fulton county, has made his appearance at the Bar of that Court of Last Resort, over which the Supreme Judge of the Universe presides; a Court in which no errors can be committed and in which exact justice is assured.

In the councils of our profession a vacancy exists that will not soon be filled; a loss has been sustained that will not easily be repaired; the fraternal organizations to which he belonged have lost a loyal brother and they will greatly miss his presence, his aid, his assistance; the community has lost a useful and patriotic citizen; his home, a kind and loving husband and father; there is an empty chair at the fireside, a vacant place at the table, the loving voice in the hearts of the loved ones he has left behind that cannot be filled.

To his loved ones let us extend our heartfelt sympathy, and as we bid him good-bye let us cover his frailties with the mantle of charity and resolve to emulate his virtues and thus assure to the world and to posterity a continuation and survival of the good
